DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 7-9, 14-18, and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cox (U.S. Patent No. 4,758,000). Cox discloses an apparatus for positioning a user and for guiding the user through a swing stroke comprising elements recited in these claims including a base stand assembly (11) with a base board (11a), the apparatus further comprising the vertical post (12) supported in the base stand assembly (11), the distal end of the vertical post (12) terminates a bearing mount (15) linking to the yoke (25) via a hub (18), the yoke (25) pivoting on the swing axis (19) relative to the base board (11a). Figures 8 and 9 illustrating the vertical post (114) comprising telescopic tubes forming a height adjustment capability. The cross bar (34) serves as a damping means for limiting a pivoting speed. The hand guide assembly (23) serves as a locking means for locking the yoke (25) and the bearing mount (15) in a fixed angular position with respect to the base board (11a). Figure 1 further displaying a leg guide bar (42) having a hooked outer end portion (43) provided.

The introductory statement of intended use and all other functional statements have been carefully considered but deemed not to impose any structural limitations on the claims distinguishable over the Cox device in the sense of USC 102 which is capable of being used as set forth in these claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3, 6, 10-13, 19, 20, 22-27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
